BACKGROUND ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

17.

- 19. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege, and incorporate herein by reference, each and every allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs.
- 20. Rui was inflicted with a gunshot wound caused by PRC Government security forces while Rui participated in a Prodemocracy demonstration several years ago, in Beijing, at Tiannmen Square. Rui is also a practicing Christian with lengthy ties to Christian church organizations on Guam and within the CNMI. Additionally, Rui is married to U.S. citizen now residing in the CNMI.

- 21. Rui's former friend, named Liang Fei ("Fei"), associated with Rui in PRC at the time Rui was shot. Fei later travelled to Guam, where he obtained a U.S. "green card". Fei later planned a temporary visit to PRC. After arriving there, however, Fei was, upon information and belief, forced to relinquish possession of his "green card" to PRC officials, and precluded by PRC officials from leaving PRC. Fei, upon information and belief, was either imprisoned or killed by PRC officials as retribution for the role Fei played, together with Rui, in PRC-situated pro-democracy demonstrations..
- 22. PRC officials have, upon information and belief, refused to provide to Rui a PRC passport because PRC officials want Rui deported to the PRC where, upon arrival, Rui expects that he will be killed, imprisoned, tortured, or otherwise persecuted by PRC officials, as the result of his pro-democracy political activities, Christian religious activities, and willingness to fight against deportation to PRC by way of filing this lawsuit.
- 23. Rui is presently incarcerated at the CNMI Government's Immigration Detention Center where, as a consequence of internal injuries, he must receive frequent medical attention.
- 24. CNMI Government officials are currently attempting, through the CNMI Superior Court, to deport Rui to the PRC.
- 25. Liao has resided in the CNMI for many years. To finance his departure from the PRC and his travel to the CNMI, Liao borrowed funds (totalling more than U.S. $10,000.00) from persons who, upon information and belief, are affiliated with or connected to politically powerful PRC Government officials. Liao also has more than one child presently within the PRC.

- 26. Liao has friends who, like Liao, departed the PRC by borrowing funds from persons who, upon information and belief, are affiliated with or connected to or work in tandem with politically powerful PRC Government officials.
- 27. Persons like Liao, who have departed the PRC by borrowing funds from persons reputedly affiliated with or connected to or working in tandem with politically powerful PRC Government officials, must either repay those funds with exorbitant interest or, upon information and belief, will face the prospect of being personally threatened/harmed or having PRC-situated family members threatened/harmed, by PRC Government officials or persons acting in concert with or under the protection of or in tandem with PRC Government officials. Liao, however, is financially unable to currently repay his U.S. $10,000.00-plus monetary obligation to persons acting in concert with or under the protection of or in tandem with PRC Government officials.

 $\Sigma^{*}$

- 28. Persons like Liao, who have more than one child residing with the PRC, upon information and belief, are likely to be harassed, persecuted, sterilized, and/or otherwise harmed within the PRC, by PRC Government officials or persons acting in concert with or under the protection of or in tandem with PRC Government officials.
- 29. Liao, who voluntarily participated in the CNMI Government's recent "amnesty" immigration program, currently remains incarcerated at the CNMI Government's Immigration Detention Center.

- 30. CNMI Government officials are currently attempting, through the CNMI Superior Court, to deport Liao to the PRC.
- 31. In the event that Rui is deported or otherwise forced to return to the PRC, he will, upon information and belief, face additional persecution by PRC Government officials as a consequence of having filed this civil action and otherwise exercising those protections guaranteed to him pursuant to the U.S. Constitution, the CNMI Constitution, and related laws, rights, and treaties.
- 32. In the event that Liao is deported or otherwise forced to return to the PRC, he will, upon information and belief, face additional persecution by PRC Government officials as a consequence of having filed this civil action and otherwise exercising those protections guaranteed to him pursuant to the U.S. Constitution, the CNMI Constitution, and related laws, rights, and treaties.
- 33. The U.S. Government is empowered with authority over all U.S. treaties, international human rights obligations, and matters falling with the scope of the Immigration and Naturalization Act ("INA").
- 34. The U.S. Government was required to served as fiduciary to the CNMI, prior to enactment of the Covenant, in accordance with that entity known as the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands ("TT").
- 35. Throughout the TT's existence, the U.S. Government's fiduciary duties obligated the U.S. Government to regulate human rights and immigration matters within the CNMI, including but not limited to issues relating to asylum/refugee requests by persons from PRC and elsewhere.

- 36. Following enactment of the Covenant, the U.S. Government retained control of various matters, including the application of the INA within the CNMI, under various circumstances.
- 37. The INA is applicable today within the CNMI under various circumstances.
- 38. Following enactment of the Covenant, the U.S. Government retained control, and today maintains control, over various matters, including:
- (i) the application of international human rights obligations within the CNMI;
  - (ii) the processing of asylum/refugee applications; and,
- (iii) the resolution of issues relating to asylum/refugee requests by persons from PRC and elsewhere.
- 39. The U.S. Government has acceded to the 1967 Protocol to the Convention.
- 40. The U.S. Government's accession to the 1967 Protocol binds and obligates the CNMI Government to both the 1967 Protocol and to the Convention.
- 41. The CNMI Government has enacted no meaningful policies or procedures by which the CNMI Government adequately ensures that the CNMI Government upholds its obligations to persons seeking asylum/refugee status under either U.S. law or under the 1967 Protocol and the Convention.

Re: U.S. Refugee Applicants/INS Form I-590 Processing

Dear Mr. Martinez:

During the past several weeks, several hundred Peoples'
Republic of China ("PRC") citizens now residing in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands ("CNMI"), have communicated to me their intent to seek refugee status under United States ("U.S.") laws and United Nations ("U.N."); human rights obligations made applicable within the U.S. and the CNMI.

Many of those CNMI-situated PRC citizens have now been provided INS Form I-590 refugee applications. They include a Christian priest, a former Beijing news reporter, many women with multiple children, and various political dissidents including Li Falun Gong movement and China Democracy Party members. For some, the I-590 applications will be completed this week.

Given the above-described circumstances, I am writing to request that you notify me whether I-590 applications submitted on behalf of PRC applicants will be accepted by your office, should be transmitted to another INS office for processing, or will be wholly rejected by INS officials.

In the event that the applicants are not accepted for processing by INS officials, copies will also be forwarded to U.N. officials for processing. Communications by and between P. Roy Catalani (a Hawaii-based immigration law specialist), U.N. attorneys, and me, are expected to continue this week. Please let me know whether you or other INS officials might be interested in participating in those discussions.

Oscar Martinez August 9, 1999 (CNMI) Page Two

The U.N. refugee application processing time has reportedly been quite lengthy in past years. One consequence of that delay has been the perception that CNMI-based U.N. applicants could not be deported from the CNMI or travel to the U.S. while applications were pending, but were required to remain for years in the CNMI.

I would also appreciate any information you, INS officials, and others, are willing to provide with respect to the so-called "Tinian boat people". FOIA requests for production of that information are also in the process of being prepared.

One source represented to me that only 290 of the approximately 500 "boat people" were repatriated to the PRC from Tinian, and that the remainder were processed for refugee status by Federal officials, and then transported to the Mainland U.S.

Another source represented that CNMI Immigration/DPS personnel assigned to guard the "boat people" quarantine area were instructed by senior CNMI Immigration officials, to prevent anyone, and "especially lawyers", from entering the Tinian detention areas and conferring with the "boat people".

A third source claimed to have been advised, while providing services within a Tinian detention area, that Federal and CNMI officials there made clear their intent to keep quiet both the fact that many of the "boat people" detainees were being processed for refugee consideration with transit to the U.S., and the prospect that such an option might be available to all of the 12,000 or so PRC citizens now residing in the CNMI (even those here illegally).

Equally confusing is the position taken with respect to this situation by the Saipan Garment Manufacturers' Association ("SGMA") and/or recently attributed to SGMA Spokesperson Richard A. Pierce. During an August 7, 1999 youth basketball game, CNMI attorney James E. Hollman was approached by Pierce who, Hollman later explained: (i) scathingly criticized the efforts being made by Catalani, me, and others, to assist prospective PRC refugees; and, (ii) expressed the view that my efforts amounted to "a deathwish".

When I later telephoned Pierce to confirm the "deathwish" view, he would not confirm or deny having expressed that view, and said "Don't bother me". When personally asked about the "deathwish" view during a chance encounter today, Pierce glared at me, refused to respond, and stalked out of the restaurant.

I remain uncertain whether Pierce's "deathwish" view constitutes his personal opinion, an SGMA position, or an implicit threat against me. If a threat, perhaps your office might be inclined to have Federal Bureau of Investigation officials consult with Pierce. Or, if the "deathwish" view is an official SGMA position being relayed by Pierce, perhaps some question should be raised concerning SGMA's commitment to ensuring that its PRC employees are afforded full and equal human rights protection in the CNMI.

Pierce's view, in any event, certainly seems a departure from his previously-portrayed *businesses for social responsibility* attitude.

As for seeking assistance or protection from within the CNMI, it occurs to many that the present CNMI Immigration leadership apparently acts at the whim of SGMA officials: imposing the July 27, 1999 ban on all PRC immigration to the CNMI; lifting the ban, nine days later, to permit CNMI entry for only those PRC citizens hired by Pierce's SGMA affiliates; and, in the process, claiming to have a firm grasp of a problem repeated 12,000 times by CNMI Immigration leadership, i.e., the entry of 12,000 prospective PRC refuges applicants into the CNMI during the past few years.

PRC citizens working in the CNMI are, after all, entitled to the same human rights as the rest of us. And, interestingly, it has been the local community which has recognized and supported those rights, and our efforts to protect those rights: as opposed, that is, to the PRC employers, SGMA affiliates, and (reportedly) the current CNMI Immigration leadership, apparently incensed at the public mention or the prospect of those rights being exercised by PRC citizens in the CNMI.

Please contact me at your convenience if you have any questions or comments pertaining to any of the matters addressed in this letter, or any related matter.

Respectfully yours,

Re: Open Government Act Request, 1 CMC Div. 9

Dear Ms. Kara and Mr. Zachares:

Based on recent communications with United Nations personnel, it is my understanding that the United States ("US") considers the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands ("CNMI") to be bound by the US accession to the 1967 Protocol to the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees ("1951 Convention"). The US Government, therefore, bears the responsibility for ensuring that refugees seeking refugee/asylum status within the CNMI not be subject to refoulement to their countries of origin in violation of Article 33 of the 1951 Convention.

The US, through its CNMI-based INS employee Oscar Martinez, has recently taken the position that neither the CNMI-situated INS office, nor any other office, will accept for processing any INS-published I-590 forms completed by CNMI-situated Peoples' Republic of China ("PRC") citizens.

Given the situation described in the preceding paragraph, I am writing to request that the CNMI Office of the Attorney General ("OAG") and the CNMI Department of Labor and Immigration ("DOLI") make available to me for inspection within ten (10) days, and pursuant to 1 CMC §9917, the following public records:

- (1) OAG's current policy, rules, and procedures for accepting and processing refugee applications, and the date(s) on which they were enacted;
- (2) OAG's current policy, rules, and procedures for accepting and processing asylum applications, and the date(s) on which they were enacted;

- (3) DOLI's current policy, rules, and procedures for accepting and processing refugee applications, and the date(s) on which they were enacted;
- (4) DOLI's current policy, rules, and procedures for accepting and processing asylum applications, and the date(s) on which they were enacted;
- (5) any current CNMI policy, rules, and procedures for accepting and processing refugee applications, not described in the preceding sub-paragraphs, and the date(s) on which they were enacted;
- (6) any current CNMI policy, rules, and procedures for accepting and processing asylum applications, not described in the preceding sub-paragraphs, and the date(s) on which they were enacted;
- (7) any current CNMI, DOLI, and OAG policy and procedures, for accepting and processing refugee applications, which have been modified within the past six (6) months, and the date(s) of modification;
- (8) any current CNMI, DOLI, and OAG policy and procedures, for accepting and processing asylum applications, which have been modified within the past six (6) months, and the date(s) of modification;
- (9) the name, address, and contact telephone number of each person employed by the US who participated within the past six (6) months in accepting and processing refugee applications on Tinian;
- (10) the name, address, and contact telephone number of each person employed by the US who participated within the past six (6) months in accepting and processing refugee applications on Tinian;
- (11) all written memoranda, facsimile transmissions, correspondence, and e-mail transmissions generated by and between DOLI, OAG, INS, US Department of Justice, and/or US Department of State officials, generated within the past three (3) months, which pertain to the accepting and processing of refugee applications on Tinian;

- (17) all written memoranda, facsimile transmissions, correspondence, and e-mail transmissions generated by and between OAG, DOLI, and/or DPS relating to limiting persons not detained in the Tinian refugee detention center from meeting, communicating with, and/or conversing with, PRC citizens detained within the Tinian refugee center.

In the event that OAG or DOLI intends to deny my requests to inspect any of the public records to which access has been requested in this letter, please specify and explain the grounds upon which the denial is premised, as required by 1 CMC §9918(d).

Thank you for your anticipated assistance.

Re:

Open Government Act Request

Dear Mr. Jorgensen:

I write in response to your August 12, 1999 Open Government Act ("OGA") request, listing 17 numbered paragraphs relating to various immigration-related information ("Request").

We note that the Request is very unclear. Accordingly, we will attempt to respond to the Request as written, to the extent we can discern the meaning of the Request. Furthermore, the Request appears to seek very sensitive and highly confidential intelligence and investigative information. Naturally, such information cannot be produced. Nonetheless, we attempt to respond to the Request as follows:

First, the Request is clearly objectionable on numerous substantive grounds, including, but not limited to, vagueness, ambiguity, burdensomeness and overbreadth.

Second, some or all of the requested information may not fit within the statutory definition of a "public record." See 1 CMC § 9902(f).

Third, to the extent the Request seeks publicly available information, we refer you to Title 3 Division 4 of the Commonwealth Code (as amended by P.L. 11-5, 11-6, 11-33, 11-51, 11-58 and 11-60), related rules and regulations published in the Commonwealth Register, Executive Order 94-3 and immigration case law. Such information is publicly available in the Commonwealth Law Library, the District Court Law Library and the Office of the Attorney General.

Fourth, to the extent the Request seeks information in connection with any pending criminal or civil cases, you should comply with the applicable rules of procedure.

See Com. R. Crim. P. 16 and 17(c); Com. R. Civ. P. 26, 34 and 45; Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 and 17(c); Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, 34 and 45; 1 CMC § 9918(a)(8).

Fifth, the requested information appears to be exempt from disclosure pursuant to the CNMI Constitution, the OGA and other applicable law concerning (inter alia) privilege, confidentiality protections, individual privacy, internal agency deliberations, investigative secrecy and law enforcement methods and sources. See CNMI CONST. Art. 1 § 10 and 1 CMC §§ 9902(f), 9903, 9917(a) and 9918(a)(4), (5), (7), (8) and (13). This list is illustrative, not exhaustive.

In a good-faith effort to cooperate (without waiving the above objections), we wish to advise you that the Office of the Attorney General exercises little or no authority with respect to immigration matters. See Executive Order 94-3 § 301(c)(2) (June 24, 1994). Furthermore, we note that the United States exercises exclusive jurisdiction with respect to foreign affairs and defense. See COVENANT § 104. Accordingly, you may wish to direct appropriate inquiries to appropriate federal agencies. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Acting Attorney General
